Here's your target...

...Northstar Island!
A remote paradise said to contain incredible wonders!

Yeah? Like what?

That's why I've hired you to find out. I need someone to hunt down any beasts, treasures, or people that will help me conquer the world.

And that someone...

...is NACK THE WEASEL!

You keep doing that! I dropped that fake name ages ago!

Jet the Jerboa?
No.
Fang the Sniper?
Gettin' warmer.
Fang the... Hunter?
There ya go, big boy.

Well that's needlessly confusing.

Hey, when you're a wanted criminal like me, you use all sorts of tricks to cover your trail.

Whatever. I'm paying you to hunt, not talk!

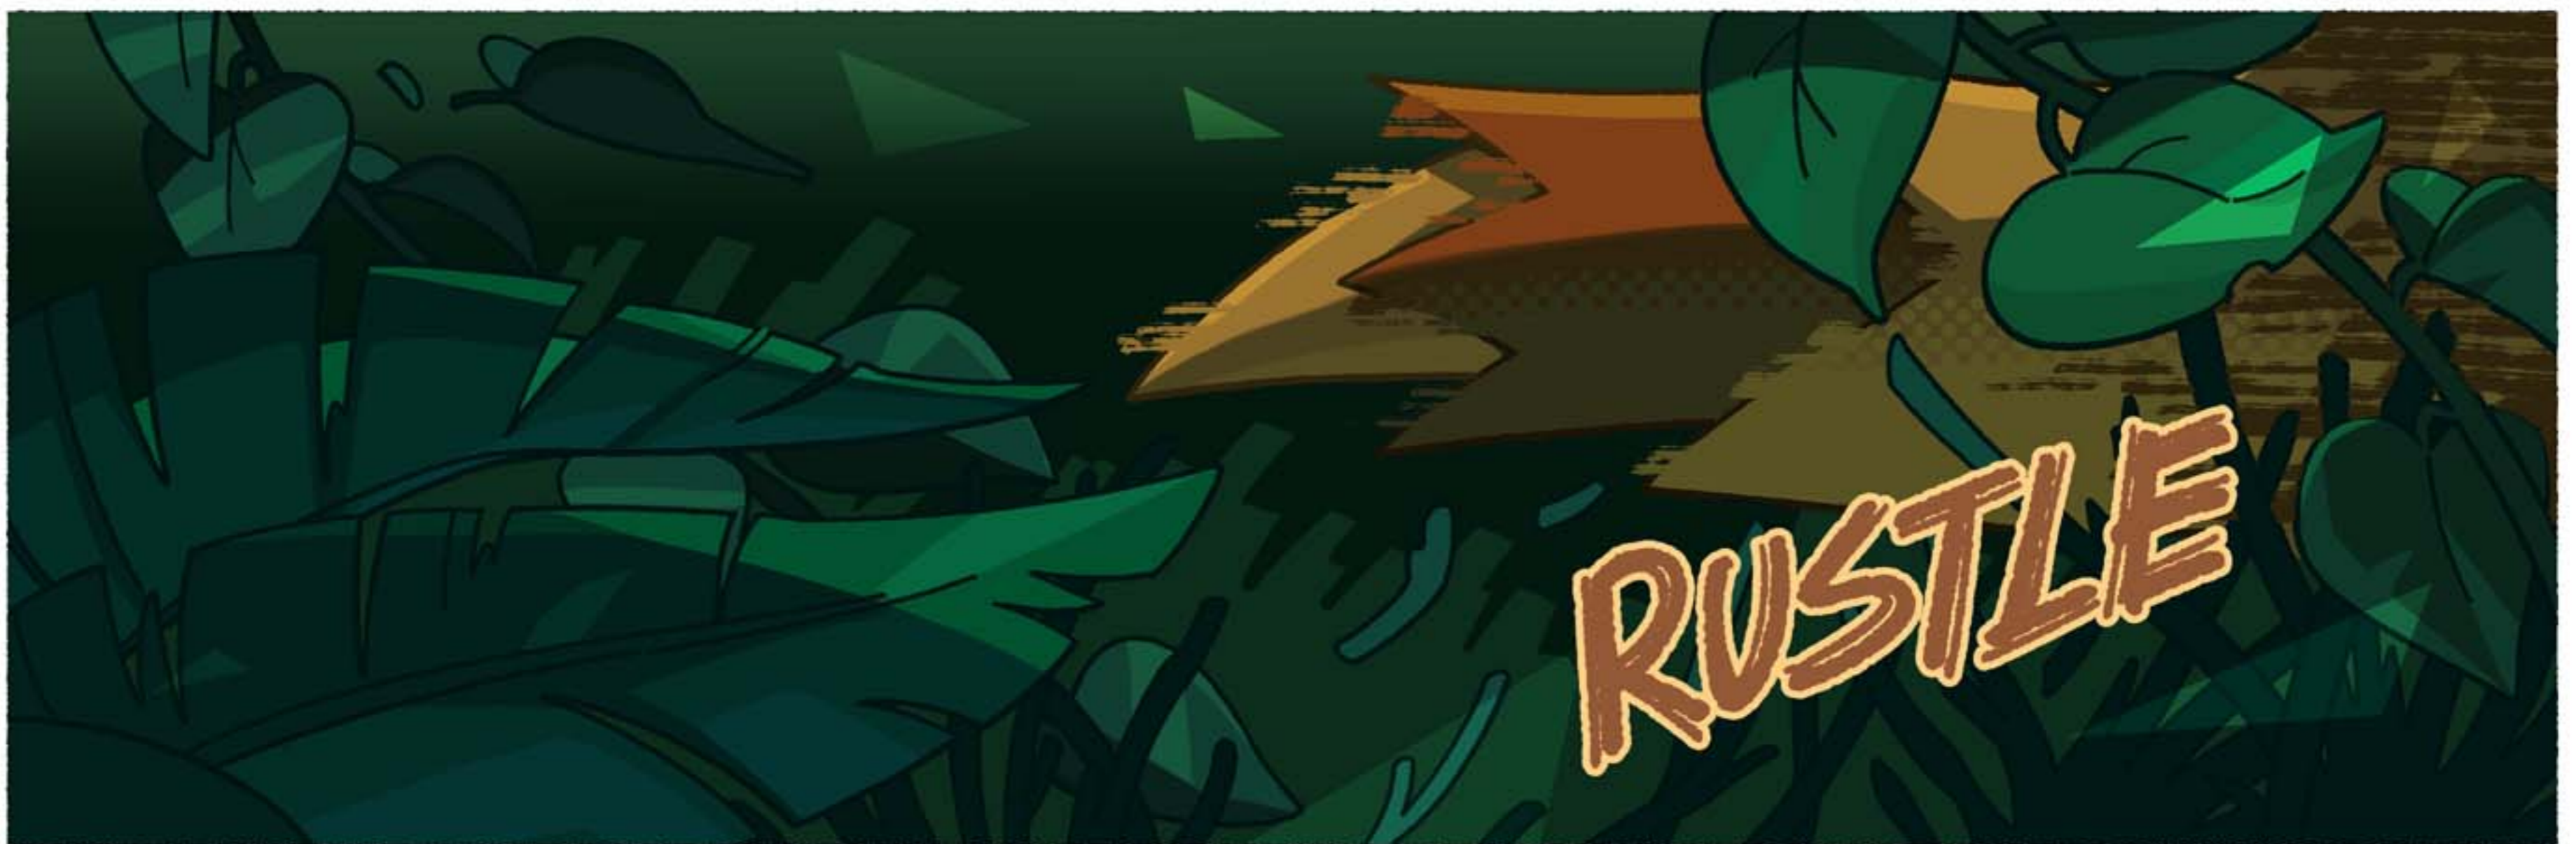

You got it, Doc.

This has gotta be the easiest gig ever! "I'll pay you a heap to look around a tropical island!" Sure whatever you want, Egg-mook!

Maybe there's some ruins or something here. I'll show him some relic, pocket any treasure for myself, and cash out! It's perfect! It's...

Hey doc?

You -uh- don't happen to know if this island is inhabited, do you?

Gee, I'd better hire some kind of expert hunter to scout around and find out...

Oh wait! That's you! So stop wasting time and get to work!

Oh I'm billing you extra, just for that...

Alright then. Let the hunt begin!

Maybe I was seeing things? There's nothing but happy critters around here.

This is beneath me! I've gone toe-to-toe with Sonic before!

I only lost because of... Technical issues!

This time's gonna be different!
I'll--!

GAK!

Something huge left these tracks...

Now this is a hunt worthy of my expertise!

With tracks this big, hunting this thing down will be easy-peasy. After all, I managed to track down onna the most legendary treasures...

"...The Master Emerald!"

"Three times, at least!"

"Of course, I ran into the same problem every time..."

SQUAAK!!

CRUNCH

Get your act together! You're repeating your past mistakes!

You're better than this! You have to be!

This thing is bigger and stronger than you. so don't take it head-on...

Get it off-balance and tire it out!

WHHUUUD

Don't get your hands dirty...

...Make sure your tech is in working order and use that instead!

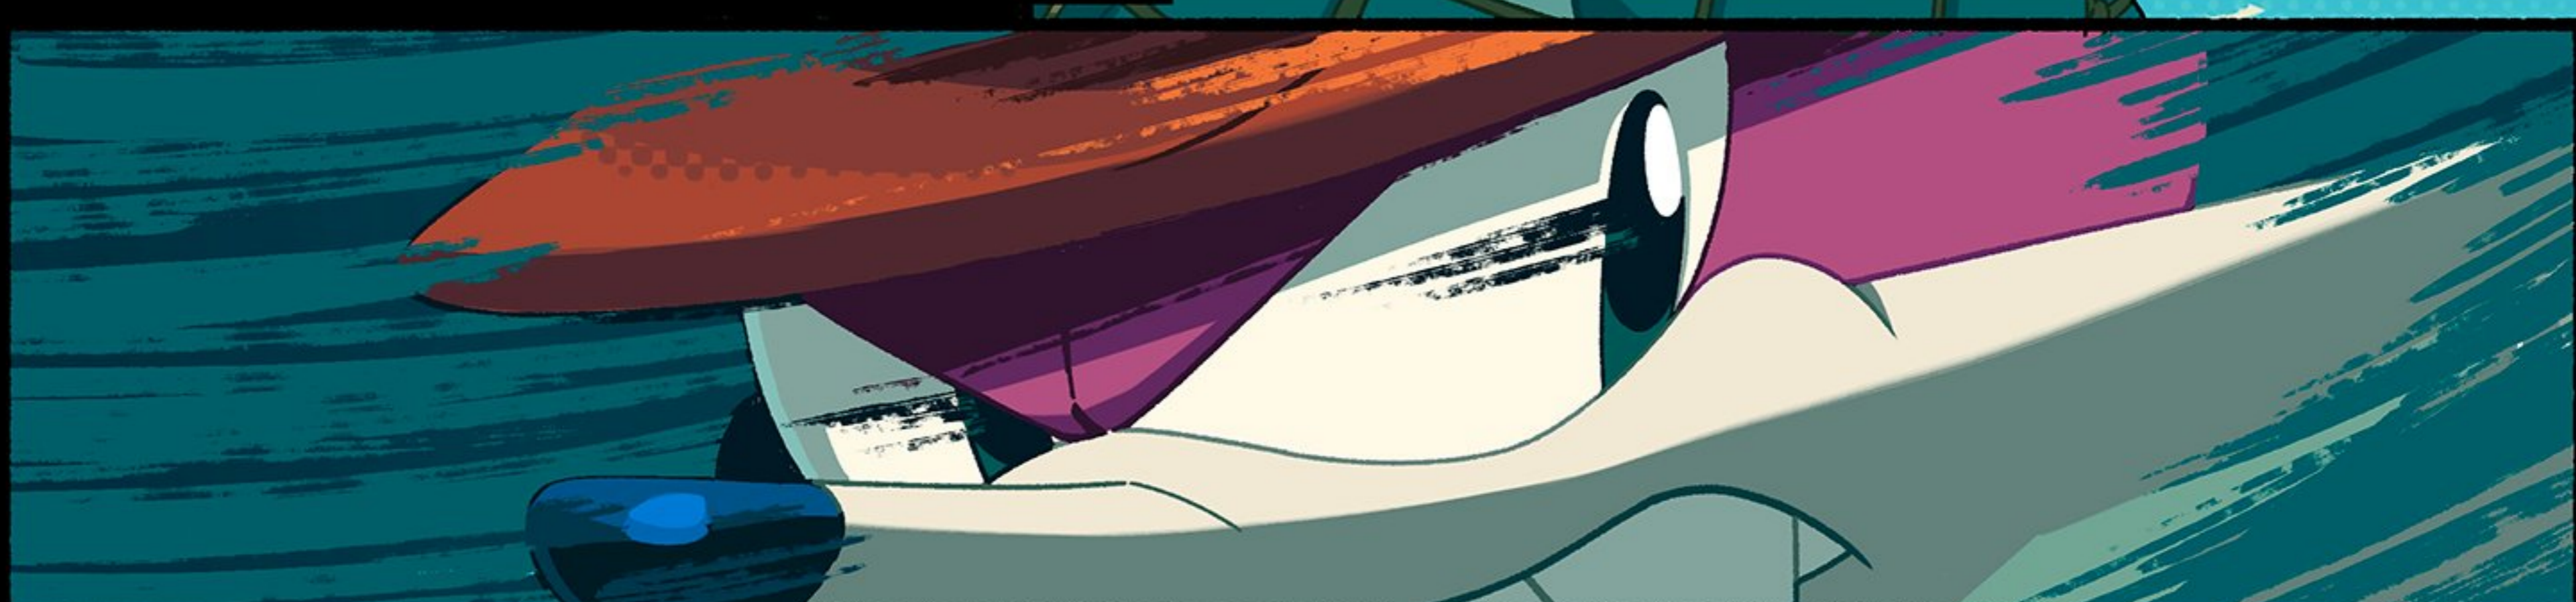

Oh no you don't!

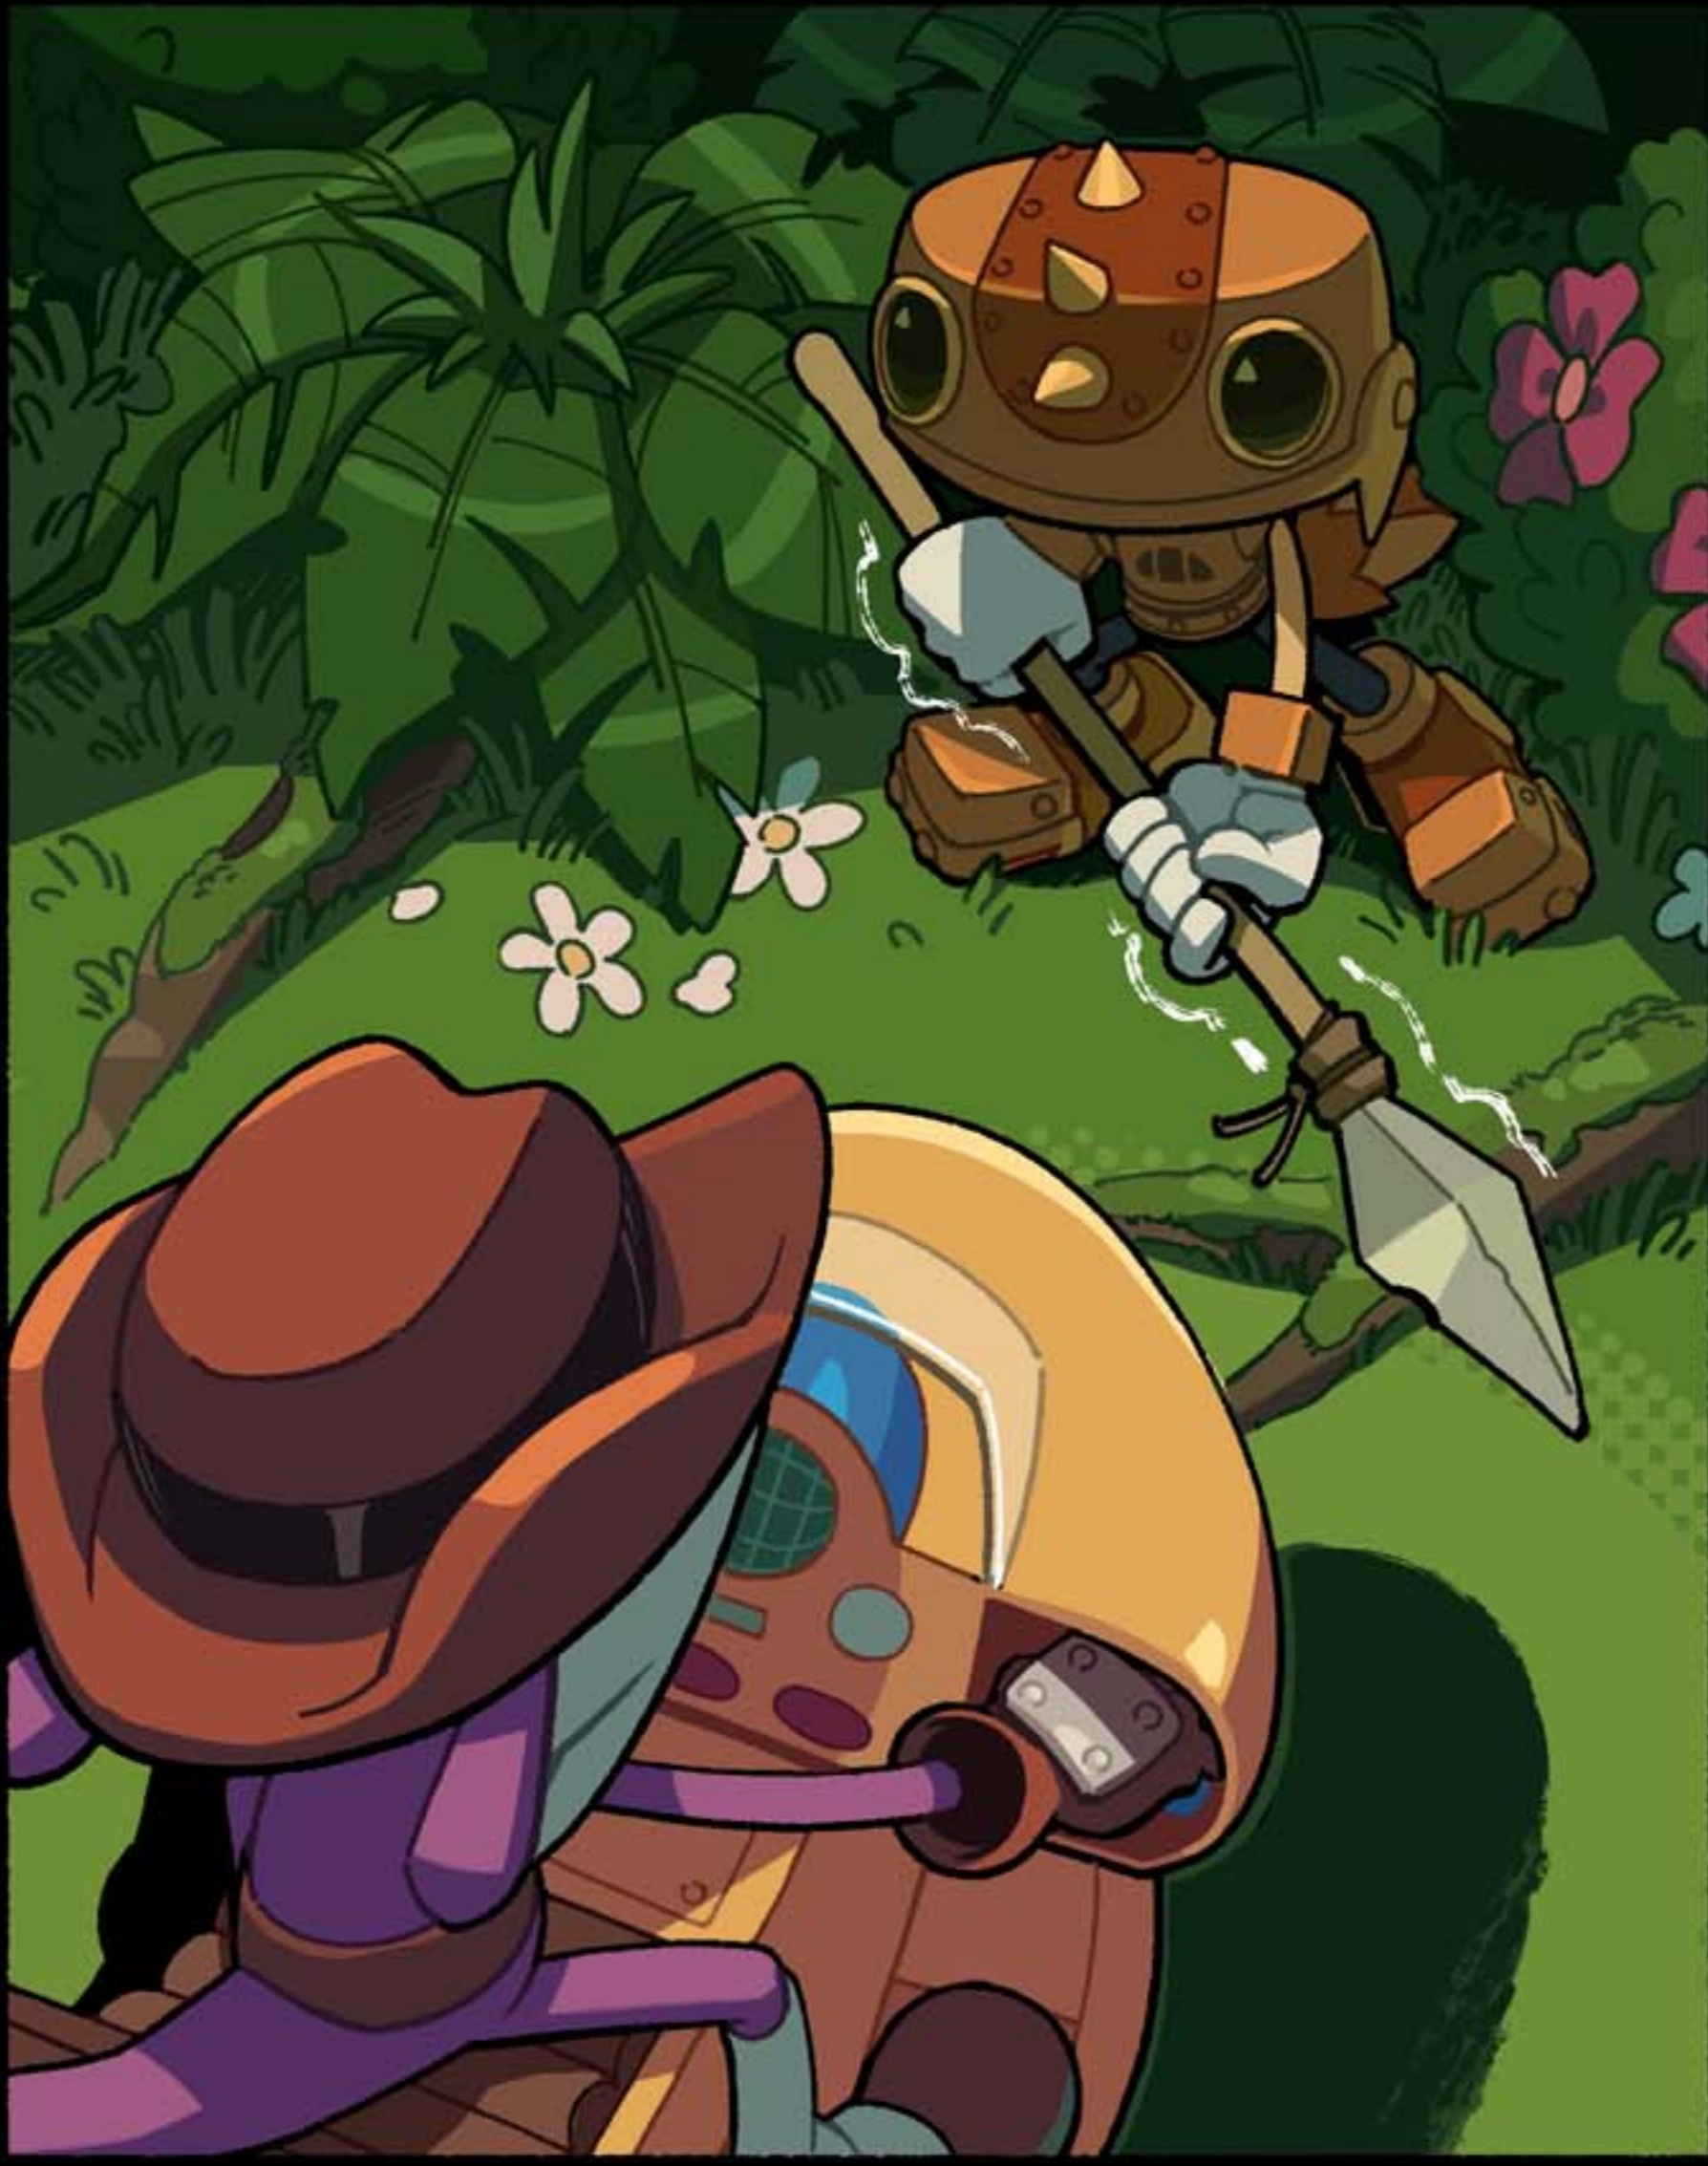

HRRNGH!

Gotcha, ya giant goober.

Not your lucky day, huh?

I've got questions, and you're gonna answer every one of them-- or else!

To be continued in...
