

SEGA Unveils New Character and Key Statistics From the Sonic Dash Global Challenge

SEGA is proud to announce that over 4.3 million fans took part in the first ever Sonic Dash[™] global challenge. Speeding away and running the in-game equivalent of one hundred times around the world in miles, players dashed to unlock the ultimate reward- Shadow the Hedgehog as a playable character.

To celebrate the completion of the challenge, SEGA has released an infographic highlighting key facts and figures for the duration of the worldwide task which include miles ran per day, top power-ups received and the number of rings collected throughout the event.

For anyone who missed this opportunity to take part, Shadow is now available from the in-game store. So get dashing!
